Principles of Preventive Health Care and Disease Management

This three-part webinar series covers the basics of HEDIS® and keys for success to earn higher HEDIS scores. At the completion of this program, you will be able to obtain a comprehensive understanding of HEDIS measures and positive learning outcomes by way of virtual self-study.

Dates offered for continuing education (CE) credit:
   June 13, 2016 through June 13, 2017

Visit our website at: https://mediproviders.anthem.com/ca
Locate the Provider Support tab and within select Quality Assurance then Quality Improvement.

At the conclusion of the activity, participants will be able to:
• Define the purpose for why HEDIS data is rendered.
• List two practical approaches to improve HEDIS scores in their own practices.
• State three best practices to improve record collection positively impacting HEDIS scores.

To obtain CE credit:
• View all three virtual self-study webinars as follows: HEDIS 101 Webinar, Adult HEDIS Measures Webinar and the Child HEDIS Measures Webinar.
• Complete the HEDIS Webinar CME Evaluation form (following the webinar links) and fax it to Health Education at 1-818-240-1206 or email it to healthed_ca_medicaid@anthem.com.

Note: This CE opportunity is offered to providers and registered nurses but may also be useful to other related health practitioners and staff. Please confirm with the appropriate party if credit will be accepted for your business need.

Please email all questions to healthed_ca_medicaid@anthem.com.
